

Maison
Personal
Friday, May 27, 2022

IMPORTANT NOTICE

IMPORTANT NOTICE - EARLY CANCELLATION OF ALL MAISON LOUISIANA INSURANCE POLICIES EFFECTIVE June 30th, 2022 at 11:59PM

We regret to inform you that Maison Insurance Company (“Maison”) is issuing early cancellations of all of its insurance policies in Louisiana. Maison’s Demotech Financial Stability Rating was downgraded and does not have adequate reinsurance coverage for the 2022 hurricane season.

The affected policies will be cancelled with 30 days’ notice issued on or around May 31st, 2022, to be effective as of 11:59PM Local Time on June 30th, 2022. The Louisiana Department of Insurance has approved the cancellation of these policies. If your customers have not already paid all premiums due for coverage provided through the June 30th, 2022 cancellation date, their premium payments must be made pursuant to the latest premium invoice or payment plan applicable to such policies.

We will refund unearned premiums in a timely fashion after the cancellation date and all notices and documentation will be processed via our PTS policy administration system.

This cancellation notice will be sent to the policyholders – please CLICK HERE to view

Please contact your agent to find replacement coverage to be effective no later than June 30th, 2022. We will work with you to provide policy information to facilitate replacement of the affected policies.

We understand that this news may be alarming to many policyholders and want to assure you that our commitment to honoring all of our existing policies and open claims remains the same. All policyholders and agents will receive the same professional service you have always received from the Maison team. Please contact Underwriting at (800) 293-2532 or e-mail uwinfo@fednat.com for any additional questions.